SOCIETY ITEMS

Mrs. J. L. Zipperer entertained with a little crawfish party on Monday night at her home in honor of Mrs. Willard Jones of Portland.

Mrs. D. W. Richardson and Mrs. L. E. Allen entertained about twenty ladies at a Social Whirl at the Richardson home last Wednesday. The tables were decorated with ferns and yellow and white dahlias. The young girls assisted the hostesses in serving ice cream and cake to the guests.

Miss Lucille Hobbs was hostess Wednesday afternoon at an elaborately appointed bride luncheon at which she and her guests complimented Miss Esther LeMont whose wedding to Mark Hegele will be an event in the near future. Several of the intimate friends of the guest of honor were entertained and delicious refreshments were served.

The members of the Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church were the guests of Mrs. Flora Owen at her beautiful home on Willamette Street, Wednesday and Friday afternoons of last week. Mrs. Owen's new veranda provided a most comfortable and charming spot on which to spend the summer afternoon and Mrs. Owen proved herself a delightful hostess. She served cakes and ices.

Mrs. C. H. John entertained several of the younger set in a most novel manner last Wednesday when she invited about 20 young ladies to her home and from there they proceeded to the river beach just east of her residence and all went bathing. After a refreshing swim in the Columbia a large beach fire was kindled and on this fire was placed a large pot of coffee and two royal chinook salmon which when taken off were found to be delicious. After lunch on the beach the party returned to the home of Mrs. John and spent the rest of the afternoon in visiting and sewing.

The well appointed farm home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Butler on Tide Creek was the scene Thursday of a most pleasant gathering of the members of the Eastern Star and Masonic fraternities of St. Helens and a few invited friends. About twenty-six St. Helens people chartered the big automobile bus of the Independent Auto Co., motored down to Tide Creek where Mr. Butler met them with his car and all were taken to the home where Mrs. Butler had provided entertainment in the way of a real farm banquet. The party of visitors were royally entertained by Mrs. Butler, assisted by Mrs. Charles English of Deer Island and Mrs. Bonser of Vancouver, B. C.

Dr. Lowe & Turner Portland's well known opticians will be at Hotel St. Helens next Wednesday, July 29th. Dr. Lowe will accompany Dr. Turner this time. Don't fail to consult them about your eyes and glasses. Remember the date.

Experience, skill and knowledge amount to little unless there is a disposition to employ them to your advantage. Drs. Lowe and Turner have the essentials and the disposition to make glasses for you that will satisfy you. Consult them at St. Helens hotel, July 29. Rainier 30, and Clatskanie the 31 and August 1st. Don't confuse the dates.

Dr. Lowe says his glasses do wear out, but they take their time about it.

PETERSON'S CASH STORE

SOLVING THE LOW COST OF BUYING

Everybody is talking about the high cost of living, and racking their brain for a solution.

That's easy. All you have to do is to solve the "Low Cost of Buying." Study carefully the Quality and the Price before you part with your money, for the one is essential as the other. A few pennies saved on each article used by the average family would amount to a considerable sum in the run of a year. It reduces the cost of living.

We have solved the "Low Cost of Buying" from the manufacturer, and you will solve it when you come to us, for we are slicing off the pennies for you which the manufacturer had to slice off for us.

Meet us face to face and you will go home with a smile. Try our Burton Santos Coffee. Excellent Cup Quality. Special—25c lb.
